Charlene Edinboro,

As we head into summer, here's a reminder for your clients about "8 people foods that are toxic to pets", from DVM 360 Magazine: <http://veterinaryteam.dvm360.com/firstline/ArticleStandard/Article/detail/670931>

Merial announced that a dosage for Equioxx® for horses was incorrectly listed in the 6th edition of Plumb's Veterinary Drug Handbook. For more, see <http://veterinarynews.dvm360.com/dvm/article/articleDetail.jsp?id=669226>

Here's a little something to tell people interested in veterinary medicine, about other places to work: "Federal Veterinarians at Work" http://www.fda.gov/AnimalVeterinary/ResourcesforYou/AnimalHealthLiteracy/ucm188851.htm?sms_ss=email

Did you know this? Next year, 2011, is World Veterinary Year: http://www.fda.gov/AnimalVeterinary/NewsEvents/ucm213433.htm?sms_ss=email and <http://www.avma.org/onlnews/javma/nov09/091101j.asp>

As a reminder, the deadline is coming up for the new APHIS accreditation program... Do check the site regularly, as it is updated often... If the forms or other features are not working, try again, or call the listed phone number: http://www.aphis.usda.gov/animal_health/vet_accreditation/av_participate.shtml

Remember, if you vaccinate an animal against rabies in San Mateo County, this must be reported to Animal Licensing. Fees from animal licenses help fund the county's spay/neuter program. Newsletter Editor needed.

It has been a pleasure to be your newsletter editor for the past 4 years. I need to take on other tasks and will not be able to continue past next month. With this transition to online and e-mail, the process will be streamlined and much speedier for the new editor. If you are interested, (especially all you techies out there) please contact me at novacris@earthlink.net, or at work at the Animal Dental Clinic, 650 610 9501. Cristine Mincheff, DVM
